

The Award Winning Marcle Leisure

Marcle Leisure provides its customers with access to the latest equipment and accessories for activities in the areas of motorhome, caravanning and boating.

The family run company was established in 2004 and has grown from strength to strength, now offering an extensive online shopping service. Steve and Cathy Monkley, the principle owners of Marcle Leisure, are from a small village called Much Marcle in Herefordshire, hence the company name, which is pronounced Mark-el.

Steve and Cathy's home is situated just nine miles from the Malvern Hills in Worcestershire, enabling them to tap into the motorhome community and find out what products would benefit their lifestyle. <http://www.marcleleisure.co.uk> offers customers the first chance to purchase the latest technology and novelty items for their mobile holiday homes. The online store features a range of fantastic products from awnings and battery chargers to lighting, locks and mirrors.

The latest products to be featured on the site include air suspension kits, snap-off steering wheel kits and seat swivels.

Deliveries take place Monday to Friday at a small extra cost.

The Directors of the Birmingham Telegraph were so impressed with the services and professionalism portrayed by Marcle Leisure that they did not hesitate in recognising the company in their yearly awards directorate. The publication's Directors and Senior Management are very pleased to announce the company as the deserving recipients of the Motorhomes: Parts & Service Supplier of the Year Award for 2009.
